150th legacy survey at St Cuthbert's

There is a brief questionnaire for anyone who can suggest ideas about how we might spend the surplus from the 150th celebrations. There will be a congregational meeting after the 11am service on Sunday 24th November to feed back the responses and agree on what to do as a permanent marker.

Thank you to those who have responded to our recent letter about giving.

Responses can be sent to David Weatherill at the parish office or left at either church. If you have not yet joined our planned giving scheme and regard yourself as a member of our church community please fill in a form available at the back of both churches – tax payers are also invited to fill in a gift aid form. Thank you!

For your prayers this week

The Collect for The Third Sunday before Advent

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Parish Community: we pray for all those affected by wars and conflict.

Diocesan Family: we pray for all chaplains to the Armed Forces and the personnel and families they serve

Anglican Communion: we pray for the diocese of Utah, province VIII of the Episcopal Church and their Bishop Scott Hayashi.

Methodist Connexion: we pray with and for Christians in South America, for the North West District of Ireland and the Channel Islands District.

Among those for whom our prayers are asked: we pray for Bob and Anne Gordon, Richard Britnell and Glynis Pearce, Nigel Petrie and for Dave, and for those in our intercession books and anyone unable to be with us today through ill-health or infirmity.

The blessed departed: we remember John O'Sullivan and Joan Winter who have recently died, and for Lilian Lisgo and Doreen Richardson, whose anniversaries fall this week

The Post Communion Prayer: God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen
